Out to Lunch is back in Downtown Dallas with a New Look and New Music

Street side music and food vendors create new atmosphere for 2008 Out to Lunch

Dallas, TX. Residents, workers and visitors of Downtown Dallas have a great reason to step outside during the lunch hour for a breath of fresh air and a bite to eat this spring. DOWNTOWNDALLAS is reintroducing the Out to Lunch concert series with a new look and feel, featuring food vendors and street performers.

Street musicians will perform at Stone Street Gardens, Pegasus Plaza, Akard Street DART Station and Browder Street to add melody to the sounds of hustle and bustle during the lunch hour. Sit on a patio at one of Downtown's many hot spots such as Urban Café, Iron Cactus, SCENE or Charlie Palmer at the Joule or grab lunch to go for a picnic on Pegasus Plaza. Food vendors will also be on Pegasus Plaza serving hot dogs and ice cream for those who need a quick lunch or have a sweet tooth. Bring your friends and coworkers to enjoy the vibrant Downtown atmosphere and the beautiful weather before the dog days of summer are here!

DOWNTOWNDALLAS has been producing Out to Lunch for nine years. For more information on this event and a complete listing of Downtown lunch spots, visit our website at www.yourDspot.com or call 214-744-4819.
